OUTSTANDING SENIORS

This year's outstanding seniors form a gallery of talent.

We begin this page with Bonnie Oeler who was Girls Club President this year and active in Pom Poms. Paula Whan, was a cheerleader for two years and in her senior year served as Treasurer of Student Council. John Corzatt won the Mr. Courtesy Award in his sophomore year and the Vice-Presidency of the Senior Class.

At the top of the facing page, we see Art Morstadt, who served on the basketball team and was Homecoming King in his senior year. John Dahey was the Illinois Youth Governor and this year's Student Council President. Dave Black appears next as Vice-President of National Honor Society and an active member of the gymnastics team. Jim Weaver won the state trampoline championship in his sophomore and senior years. Nancy Strong was Secretary of the Freshman Class. Darlene McCoy was Senior Class Secretary and was active in Pom Poms. Joyce Skinkie won the D.A.R. Award and an A.F.S. summer scholarship. Stu Ochiltree was Senior Class President. April Applequist served as Senior Class Treasurer and President of French Club.

or Karl,
Lots of luck after graduation. Are you going to college? If so, I hope you enjoy it a great deal. I'll miss you at York next year, though.

Concert Band Fills Year with Many Activities

The York High Concert Band started out the year's activities by marching and performing during the halves of all the home football games. They also played at all the home-basketball games and all the games of the Regional Tournament. The annual fall and spring concerts were again presented.

The Concert Band participated in Band Day at Northwestern University, school assemblies, programs, and graduation.

As a great honor to the band, they were invited to play at the Midwest National Band Clinic at the Sherman Hotel in Chicago.

To raise money for a trip through Southern Illinois during spring vacation, they had different projects. Some of these were to sell Christmas jewelry and brownies.

The Bandor's Association again sponsored the Antiques Fair of which the profits are used to give the band and orchestra members a picnic.

This year's Concert Band officers are Kent Wesley, President; Doug Finks, Vice President; Nancy Auld, Secretary; and Barbara Rice, Treasurer.

York's Debate Club has had a very successful year. If improvements continue to be made, the club is insured. The advisor, Mr. Nolan and Mr. Zibart, worked hard to increase the club's membership.

The club is divided into several sections. The actual debate team competed in tournaments at La Grange, Evanston, and Chicago, as well as at individual schools such as Proviso and Oakton. The results of these tournaments was very encouraging. The first team placed first in forty-five schools in the beginners division, and the second team placed seventh in the same division. At the Evanston tournament one team tied for second place in the beginners division, and the second team also a beginners' team, tied for third place in the sub-varsity division. At DeKalb both teams won five debates and lost three, with one win below an 'excellent debating' rating.

The club also participated in a tournament for individual speech events at Waukegan, which was attended by the Discussion Section. They also took part in the state individual events contest.

The Debate Club has been very active this year, sponsoring a Halloween party and a swimming party, in addition to their weekly meetings Thursday's after school. Among future Debate Club plans is a Speaker's Bureau, which provides student speakers.

This year the Future Nurse's Club celebrates its 6th birthday. Although it is one of the newest organizations at York, it is growing with leaps and bounds.

Every year more girls are able to choose a nursing profession without any doubt as to the hospital best for her.

Besides learning about her own profession, FNC members do for others. Their service projects include making scrapbooks, selling at sports events, and conducting drives for under-privileged children.

To receive a pin or guard, a member must earn 100 points by working on different projects and committees during a two year period.

This year's officers are Carol Bradley, President; Barbara Kelly, Vice-President; Ruth Hamden, Secretary; and Susan Cobner, Treasurer. The club's sponsor is Mrs. Marjorie Schrodt.

Math Club Stimulates Member Interests in Figures

The Math Club was organized in 1945 to stimulate an interest for those with ability in math. The club is sponsored by Mr. Benson.

Membership is open to juniors and seniors. Sophomores with a year of Algebra 9 and a B average for the first semester of Geometry 0 are also eligible for membership.

Each year the club invites a prominent mathematician to speak to the members at a social. They traveled to Argonne Laboratory and held their annual picnic in the spring.

For each meeting, the club has a problem of the month, and the members receive points for problems solved. At the end of the year three pins are awarded on the basis of points, activities and length of membership.

The author of the book is a well-known chess player and a strong supporter of the game. The book is written in a simple and easy-to-understand style, making it accessible to a wide range of readers. The Bay of Islands is a small bay, about 4 miles long, with a narrow entrance. The water is deep and the bay is surrounded by low hills. The bay is a good place for fishing and for sailing. The bay is also a good place for swimming and for sunbathing. The bay is a beautiful place to visit.

Cross Country Team Takes Fourth in Conference

York's cross country team, under the direction of Mr. [unclear], tied for fourth place in the Conference this season.

The varsity squad won two, lost four, and tied one of their dual meets. In the Conference meet York took fifth place for a final Conference standing of a fourth-place tie with LaGrange behind Glenbard, Arlington Heights, and Maine. Varsity runners who earned letters were captain Ken Bartlett, Tom Briggs, Gus Schmidt, and Harry Schmidt, and Manager Bob Jones.

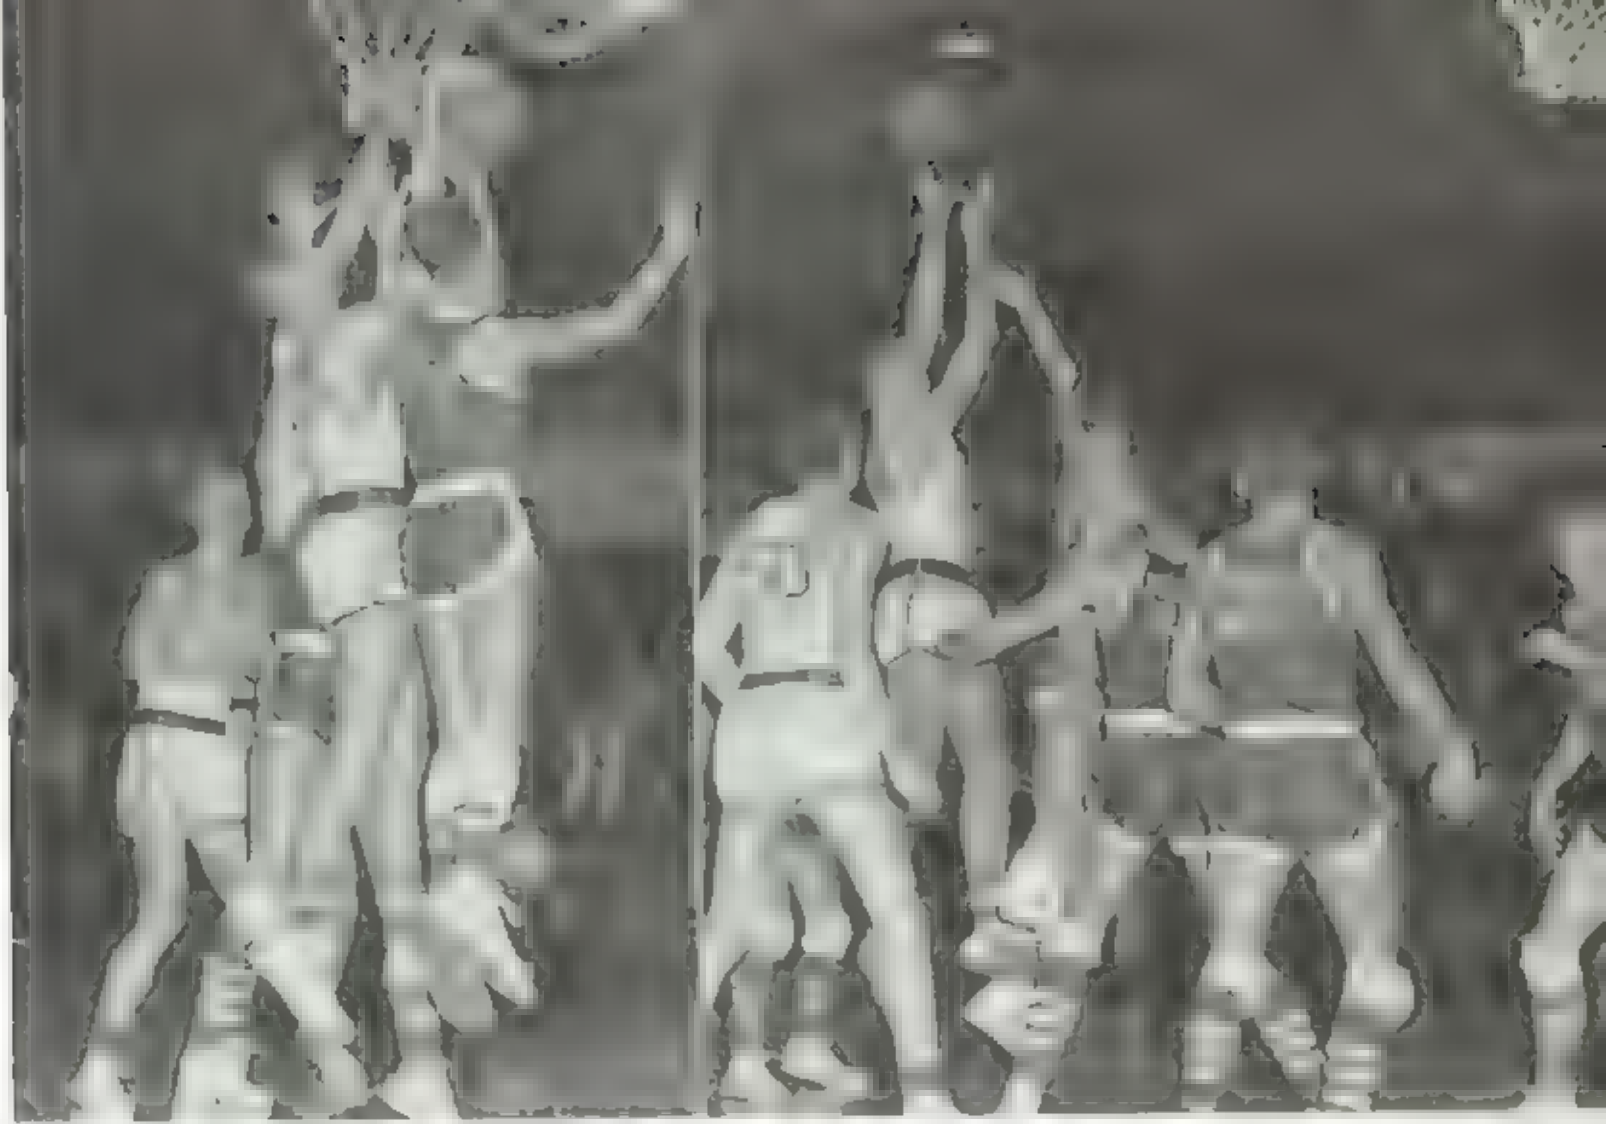

The masters won five of seven dual meets and placed fourth in the Conference meet, for a final standing of third place. Numerals were won by Randy Jacobs, Dave Goldblatt, Alan Hahn, Bill Lux, George Wisbrock, and Bob Woods.

In district competition York's Harriers took fourth place among 14 teams. Bartlett juniors Richard Allen and Henry James, seniors Dave Godbatt, Alan Hogg, and Randy Wood, and freshman Bob Woods

This year's Sophomore team took fourth place with a 7-7 record. Mr. Garland's fast moving team also took second place in the Wheaton Tournament by beating Proviso West 63-40, and by going on to beat Wheaton 68-61. In the final game they fell to Hinsdale by a 65-54 score.

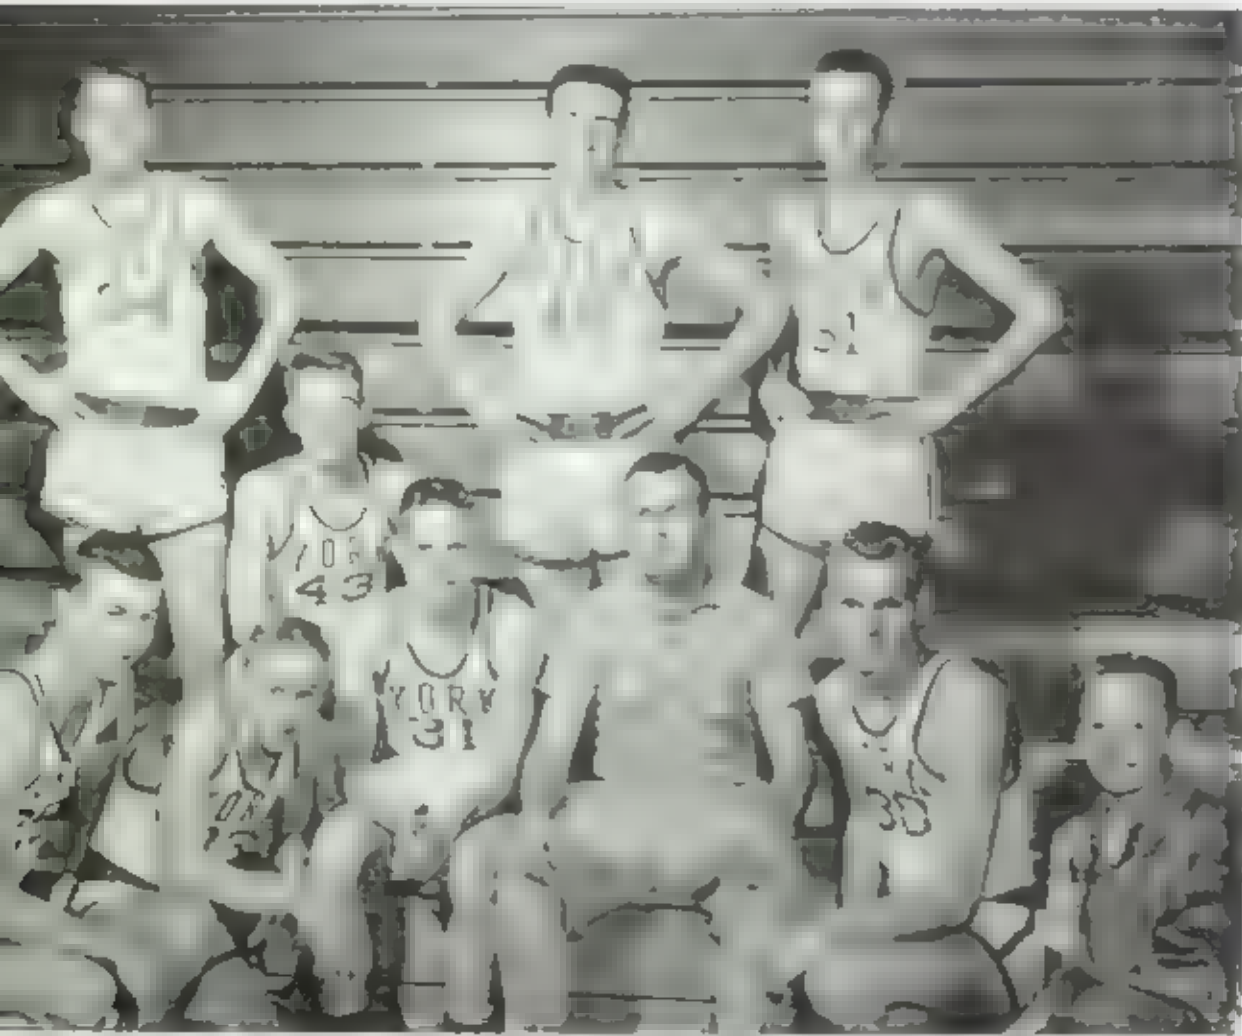

High scorers this year were: Charles Adams, named best offensive player; Dick Higley, best rebounder; and Lee MacCullum, who was the squad's playmaker.

In non-conference play the Barons beat Fenton and North Chicago, but lost to Morton by one point.

In the last half of the season three outstanding freshmen got into action, and are good prospects for next year's Frosh Soph: Don Anderson, Al Malecha, and Wayne Strauck.

This squad will be divided approximately in half for next year's teams. Although there will be a 50-50 split, there is enough good material in the squad to make a winning varsity team for next year at both York and Wilbrook.

Juniors, Frosh Good Prospects for Dukes, Barons

The junior varsity fares fairly well this season under the coaching of Mr. Timan. The juniors on this year's team are very good prospects for next year's varsity squad.

The freshman squad this year took second place with a 5-2 record. Under the able leadership of Mr. Heka and Mr. Stinson the boys did a fine job of playing, especially in the last game of the year when they beat Genbard 30-16 in overtime play.

Under the guidance of coaches Stefani and Newton the York track team had a fairly good year during the 1958 track season. While taking only fifth in the conference, the Dukes were first in the county and third in the district track meets.

In the relays York also made a good showing. They were first in the West Suburban Invitational, second at the Naperville and Rockford relays, fourth at Palatine, and only thirteenth at the Oak Park relays.

The Dukes had a record of five and three for their dual meets. In triangular meets they were first in one second in two, and third in only one. The West Suburban Conference teams to fall to the Dukes were Glenbard and Hinsdale.

Led by co-captains Don Krebs and Al Pearson, twenty-four of the team's members received letters. Nine of the letter winners were able to return this year. They are Ken Bartlett, Pat Carey, Chuck Poremba, John Zingarelli, Tom Briggs, Jim Eliot, Fred Falkner, Wayne Gianneschi, and Irwin Topel.

The York Dukes got off to a fast start this year by winning six out of their first seven by beating Glenbard, Maine, Downers Grove, Arlington Heights, Riverside-Brookfield and Hinsdale. Tough luck followed the Dukes for the remainder of the season, and they won only one and lost six. By beating every team in the conference once, however, the Dukes were able to finish the season in fifth place with a 7-7 record.

York's Grapplers Tie for Third Place in Conference

York's varsity grapplers finished a fairly successful season with a Conference record of four wins and three losses which landed them in a three-way tie for third place with Annapolis and Riverside.

In Conference competition they grappled meets to victory at Hagerstown and Middletown and they picked up wins from Glenbard, Annapolis, Downers Grove and Riverdale.

The grapplers placed fourth in the district and qualified seven men for the state championship meet.

The Co-Captains were Gary Abernethy and Bruce Smith. All-Conference wrestlers were Steve Abernethy and Walter Myrland.

Spelman, Voss Qualify for State Quarter-Finals

The varsity tennis team only managed to make a dent in the conference during the 1958 season even though Riverside Brook and Downers Grove fell to the power of the Duke's racket.

The Dukes were also seventh in the conference meet. Hinsdale took first in both the singles and doubles and Glenview won in singles play. Two of the Dukes, Pete Voss and John Soemer, qualified for quarter-finals in the State Tournament.

The best match was in non-Conference play. This was when York defeated Danville, LaGrange, and Joliet in a quadrangular match.

The freshman squad fared a little better than the varsity, finishing sixth in the conference. They did this by defeating Riverside Brook, Downers Grove, and Danville. They finished fourth in the Conference meet.

Golfers Swing into Fifth Place in Conference Meet

The 1958 golf season started off with five undefeated matches but the team only took fifth place in the Conference. The team also took fifth place in the Conference Meet. The five top players, according to Coach Huika, were Bob Daggit, Lee Huston, Gerry Goerlitz, Bob Uhrig, and John McAskil.

The lettermen to return this year are Joe Burns, John McAskil, and Jerry VanHoose. The 1959 season looks forward to the support of these lettermen plus Jim Lindstrom, Bill Savory, Larry Swanson, Jim James, Bill Hodgson, and Jack Uhrig.

The male team dominated in their great gain by gaining points in the state gymnastics tournament. They finished a very successful season by winning twelve out of thirteen and tying one. The winners were: each over Jayden, Mene and New Year and one each against Thurston, Mendocino, Morgan Park, Rich and Niles. The tie was against the year's top champion, Arlington Heights, to whom they drew a hard fought contest earlier in the season. Previous to last year's state champion was the team from the outstanding performers in this year's team in the state tournament were Jim Weaver, state trampolining champion, Dave Back, fourth on the horse, Ron Boyd, second in all-around competition and Max Hackman, fourth in all-around competition. The team voted Dave Back and Jim Weaver as team co-captains for the year. Glen Galt is the most improved gymnast and Ron Boyd as the most valuable team member.

Kurt,

Homeroom this year has been a real riot. You've been so quiet in comparison to the rest of us. How could you ever stand all the commotion when you were trying to study? Lots of luck in all you do.

Best wishes,
Marilyn Fisk

Dear Kurt:
I was pleased to hear
you in home room this year and gym last year you really had fun. Good luck.

Dear Kurt,
It was fun having you in harpington class. I hope that you have a nice summer and that you do well in Blount College.

Kurt,
Best of luck
in the future.

Kurt,

I remember

Junior High? Well we didn't have any classes there, but we saw each other in the cafeteria
